The History

Tripp was born with chronic kidney disease and received a kidney transplant from his mom when he was one.

The Loy family experienced firsthand the challenges in parenting a child with multiple medical conditions and spent large amounts of time waiting during medical appointments and hospital admissions. Subsequently, the TRIPP Foundation was created during Tripp's month-long admission for transplant.

In June of 2012, Tripp passed away due to medical complications and an untreatable gram-negative infection.

PURPOSE/MISSION:

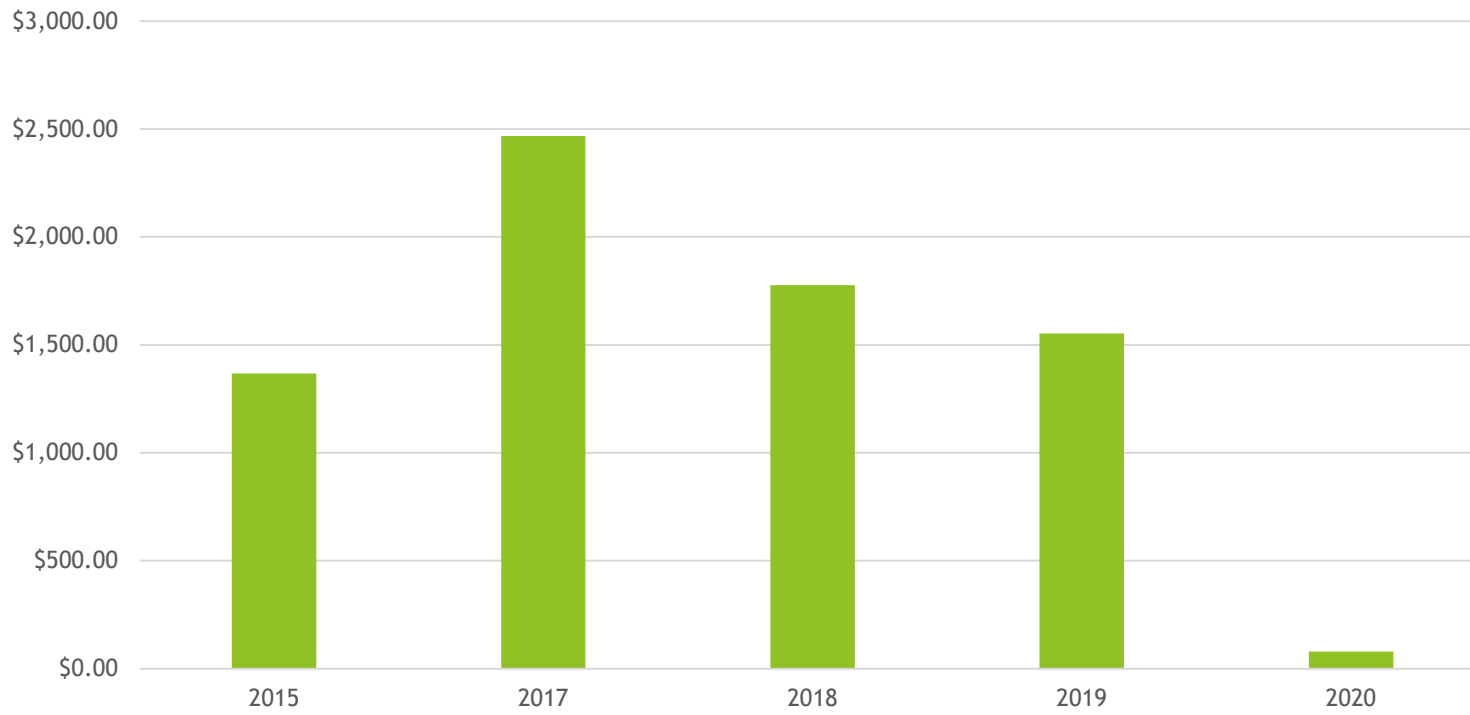

Empowering children suffering from kidney disease and their families through:

Many services have been impacted both for TRIPP Foundation and in healthcare as a whole, since March 2020 with the pandemic impact starting in the US.

Support groups have been impacted in the last two years due to safety concerns for kids and families.

Virtual & Phone sessions have been tried with difficulty in finding the same connection using these methods.

We look forward to returning to in person events in the future!
