Our Lives Online, the spring 2017 Theme Semester about the Internet and technology, officially begins in January. Theme Semester is excited to announce a few of its upcoming marquee activities in January and early February.

January 17: WorldCanvass will explore topics related to our Lives Online with campus and community experts.

January 18: Luvvie Ajayi will present a lecture on her intersection of comedy, technology, and activism as part of Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Week.

February 6: Patrisse Cullors will talk about her work as a social activist and co-creator of the #BlackLivesMatter movement.

For more information visit https://theme.uiowa.edu. The full line-up of marquee activities will be released in January. Theme Semester is a program of the Provost's Office of Outreach & Engagement.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in these events, please contact the Office of Outreach & Engagement in advance at 319-335-0684 or outreach-engagement@uiowa.edu.

/****
Distribution of this message was approved by the Provost, the VP for Student Life, and the VP for Human Resources. Neither your name nor e-mail address was released to the sender. The policy and guidelines for the UI Mass Mail service, including information on how to filter messages, are available at: http://its.uiowa.edu/massmail.
*******